Employee Spotlight

Bri Haynes

Bri Haynes, Housekeeping Supervisor has worked at Brooklyn Community Estate since 2008

When Bri isn't attending bible study, you can find her traveling to the Canadian border to go ice fishing. Bri's favorite hobbies include fishing, target shooting, Halloween and shopping. But most of all, she enjoys knitting hats and mittens for her wiener dog.

If she hasn't already submerged her ribeye in ketchup at the local steakhouse, you'll find her frequenting the closest Chinese restaurant. Keep the cherries and mushrooms away from this girl or you'll see her alter ego, Bridgette, come out.

When Bri is at home dusting her bathroom shelves, you'll hear the quaint sounds of Marilyn Manson serenading her from the living room speakers.

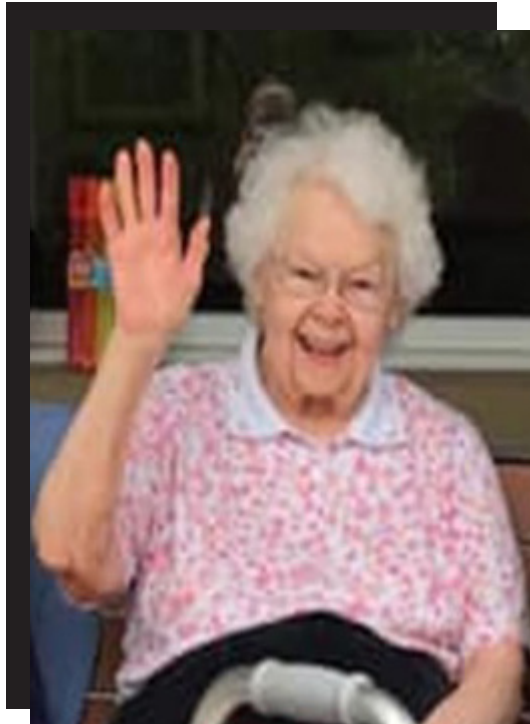

When Bri is ready to kick up her feet and relax, she likes to watch true crime shows and is looking forward to the new season of Dexter to premier. On a cold day, Bri likes to snuggle on the couch with her husband drinking pumpkin spice lattes and watching old Mariah Carey Christmas music videos. Silly Bri!

What Bri likes most about working here is not only the residents and her coworkers, but getting to come in and do something different every day. Bri is more than our housekeeping supervisor. She isn't afraid to get her hands dirty around here and has played a big role in keeping the employees and residents safe during these unprecedented times.
