Meet Randi Shaw! She works in our dietary department as a cook and has been with us since October of 2019.

When Randi isn't cooking away here at Brooklyn Community Estate, she's snarfing on some pineapple-free pizza, chugging a Diet Pepsi, or toasting to poor decisions with a bottle of sweet wine. What you won't see her eating is Rocky Mountain Oysters or anything slimy. We asked the Great Randini to share her favorite music with us. She says she's open to just about anything, but hates "Screamo" music. She says she gave that up ever since she came in last at the World Bog Snorkeling Championship.

Randi likes to wind down to a nice pistachio pudding facial while watching crime documentaries, anything scary or funny, or the show Schitt's Creek.

Randi has a husband, Benn, and three kids: Benntley, Mathias and McKinley. More importantly, she has a cat, Malakai, who brings her all the happiness in the world! She enjoys going on walks with the kids and taking them swimming, as well as testing her survival skills at lakes and trails.

Randi's favorite thing about working here is the humor within the facility. We couldn't be more pleased with Randi and we absolutely love having her here!
